1. Nature of the tasks

The SNE will assist the Commission services in the area of inland waterways transport, which is a rapidly developing policy area at the core of the Commission's transport policy priorities. The expert will be in charge of entire sub-aspects of the policy, aimed at delivering the Naiades III Action Plan COM(2021)324 final, more precisely in the area of innovation and greening of vessels, digitalisation and/or smart and flexible EU crewing rules. His/her tasks will include the initiation, development and implementation at EU level of existing and new legal and policy instruments.

The envisaged tasks include technical advice, evaluation of technical reports, preparation and drafting of legal acts/implementing measures, drafting of briefings and other documents on both policy implementation and technical issues.

In the performance of his/her duties, the SNE will interact thoroughly with the European Committee for Drawing up Standards in the Field of Inland Navigation (CESNI) and relevant international organisations such as the Rhine Commission, the Danube Commission and the UN-ECE. The SNE may be required to travel within the EU. He/she may also be required to contribute to tasks related to the coordination of EU positions within the international organisation; this will require the preparation of Commission acts to implement the external competences through coordination procedures in accordance with Art. 218(9) TFEU.

In addition, the SNE will be called upon to:

- review and provide input to TEN-T corridor development from the perspective of inland waterway transport;
- follow up innovation in inland waterway transport and support the programming of inland waterway related activities in the Horizon Europe programme;

¹ These mentions are given on an indicative basis only (Art.4 of the SNE Decision).

- review and provide input to Country Reports within the European Semester/ to the Green and Smart Investments components of the Recovery and Resilience Facility – National Plans and on the Partnership agreements exercise from the perspective on inland waterway transport;
- contribute to Commission interservice consultations with impact on inland waterways policy;
- follow up international matters related to inland navigation such as accession negotiations.

2. Main qualifications

a) Eligibility criteria

The following eligibility criteria must be fulfilled by the candidate in order to be seconded to the Commission. Consequently, the candidate who does not fulfil all of these criteria will be automatically eliminated from the selection process.

- Professional experience: at least three years of professional experience in administrative, legal, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions which are equivalent to those of function group AD;
- Seniority: candidates must have at least one year seniority with their employer that means having worked for an eligible employer as described in Art. 1 of the SNE decision on a permanent or contract basis for at least one year before the secondment;
- Linguistic skills: thorough knowledge of one of the EU languages and a satisfactory knowledge of another EU language to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties. SNE from a third country must produce evidence of a thorough knowledge of one EU language necessary for the performance of his duties.

b) Selection criteria

Diploma

- university degree or
- professional training or professional experience of an equivalent level in the field(s) : law, political sciences, business management or engineering.

Professional experience

Good acquaintance with the EU and international organisations (such as the CCNR, CESNI, Danube Commission or the UN-ECE) legislation and policies on inland waterways transport, and with the principles governing the Internal Market, would be an important asset. The SNE must have the capacity to handle complex dossiers.

Language(s) necessary for the performance of duties

Excellent knowledge of English.

3. Submission of applications and selection procedure

Candidates should send their application according to the Europass CV format (<http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/en/documents/curriculum-vitae>) in English, French or German only to the Permanent Representation / Diplomatic Mission to the EU of their country, which will forward it to the competent services of the Commission within the deadline fixed by the latter. The CV must mention the date of birth and the nationality of the candidate. Not respecting this procedure or deadlines will automatically invalidate the application.

Candidates are asked not to add any other documents (such as copy of passport, copy of degrees or certificate of professional experience, etc.). If necessary, these will be requested at a later stage.

Candidates will be informed of the follow-up of their application by the unit concerned.

4. Conditions of the secondment

The secondment will be governed by the Commission Decision C(2008)6866 of 12/11/2008 laying down rules on the secondment to the Commission of national experts and national experts in professional training (SNE Decision).

The SNE will remain employed and remunerated by his/her employer during the secondment. He/she will equally remain covered by the national social security system.

Unless for cost-free SNE, allowances may be granted by the Commission to SNE fulfilling the conditions provided for in Art. 17 of the SNE decision.

During the secondment, SNE are subject to confidentiality, loyalty and absence of conflict of interest obligations, as provided for in Art. 6 and 7 of the SNE Decision.

If any document is inexact, incomplete or missing, the application may be cancelled.

Staff posted in a European Union Delegation are required to have a security clearance (up to SECRET UE/EU SECRET level according to Commission Decision (EU, Euratom) 2015/444 of 13 March 2015, OJ L 72, 17.03.2015, p. 53).

The selected candidate has the obligation to launch the vetting procedure before getting the secondment confirmation.

5. Processing of personal data

The selection, secondment and termination of the secondment of a national expert requires the Commission (the competent services of DG HR, DG BUDG, PMO and the DG concerned) to process personal data concerning the person to be seconded, under the responsibility of the Head of Unit of DG HR.B.1. The data processing is subject to the SNE Decision as well as the Regulation (EU) 2018/1725.
