1. Nature of the tasks

The "Planetary Common Goods, Universal Values and Environmental Security" Unit of DG Environment (ENV.F.1), dealing with the three interconnected dimensions of sustainable development, works on the environment equity-stability-peace nexus. The unit aims to enhance the understanding of this nexus and its link to resource management, and pursues a better integration of the importance to protect the natural resource base in EU and global policy responses on climate, energy, development, trade, and foreign and security policy.

Under the responsibility of the Head of Unit, the successful candidate will form part of a team dealing with international water policy issues and responsible for follow up on the UN Water Conference 2023. The expert will contribute in particular to:

- Global sustainable management of planetary natural resources, comprises work on the UNECE water convention and more specifically follow up to the UN water conference.
- Environment policy to promote universal values, global stability and security, comprises work on the links between water management and conflicts, displacement and migration, and humanitarian disasters. Making the Union a more effective actor in strengthening global resilience and reducing the risk of conflict over resources.
- Work on the interdependence between water and energy, as water is used throughout the energy industry, and the water system needs energy for collecting, pumping, treating and desalinating water. Saving water means saving energy, hence water efficiency drives energy savings.

In the discharge of his/her duties, the colleague will be involved in the drafting of policy documents and will frequently interact with internal and external stakeholders. He/she will participate in relevant Council Working

Party and inter-service co-ordination meetings, in bilateral and multilateral international negotiations, and in dialogues with stakeholders as necessary.

In this context, the successful candidate will carry out the following tasks:

- Contribute to the follow up of the UN Water Conference 2023 including by promoting an enhanced reflection of the water agenda in relevant UN processes on food, health, sustainable consumption and production, climate and biodiversity, peace and security;
- Support the work of the unit in better engaging with private sector and other stakeholders, as regards the follow up of the UN Water Conference 2023;
- Support the organisation, participate and contribute actively to the meetings of the relevant committees, expert groups and other meetings;
- Support to the cooperation with third countries;
- Contribute to unit work on disasters, displacement, resilience building and humanitarian with DG ECHO and relevant organisations eg Red Cross, UNHRC and the links between EU's global energy and water policies;
- Undertake any other relevant tasks assigned by the Head of Unit.

This post involves frequent contacts with other services within the Commission (particularly DG INTPA, DG ECHO, DG ENER, DG AGRI, DG GROW, DG CLIMA and the EEAS), with Member States, stakeholders and contractors.

2. Main qualifications

a) Eligibility criteria

The following eligibility criteria must be fulfilled by the candidate in order to be seconded to the Commission. Consequently, the candidate who does not fulfil all of these criteria will be automatically eliminated from the selection process.
