1. Nature of the tasks

The SNE will actively collaborate in the tasks of the unit which are to conceive, develop, prepare, implement and monitor policies and related activities in the field of passenger rights policy in all modes of transport, as well as to coordinate within DG MOVE the social aspects of the EU transport policy and equal opportunities.

Main tasks will be dealing with the passenger rights policy:

- Contribute to impact assessments, conceiving policy and drafting legislative proposals, guidance and communications in the field of passenger rights (see especially actions 63 and 64 of the Action Plan of the Sustainable and Smart Mobility Strategy, https://ec.europa.eu/info/law/better-regulation/have-your-say/initiatives/13290-Travel-better-protection-for-passengers-and-their-rights_en).
- Assist with the follow-up of interinstitutional discussions on regulatory developments on passenger rights.
- Draft briefings, background papers, staff working documents and communications of the Commission, replies to correspondence and parliamentary questions, petitions, requests from the Ombudsman, contributions to inter-service consultations (consultations of other Directorates-General and Services on which DG MOVE is consulted).
- Assist in replying to questions of the national enforcement bodies for passenger rights.
- Assist in assessing the annual reports of national enforcement bodies.
- Assist with complaints, verify compliance with EU law and the transposition of EU law into Member States' legislation.
- Assist with the organisation of meetings, e.g. the meetings with national enforcement bodies (informal expert group on passenger rights E02681), events and communication activities.
- Contribute to the management and follow-up of projects and studies on passenger rights, including a new Eurobarometer survey on passenger rights.

¹ These mentions are given on an indicative basis only (Art.4 of the SNE Decision).

2. Main qualifications

a) Eligibility criteria

The following eligibility criteria must be fulfilled by the candidate in order to be seconded to the Commission. Consequently, the candidate who does not fulfil all of these criteria will be automatically eliminated from the selection process.

- Professional experience: at least three years of professional experience in administrative, legal, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions which are equivalent to those of function group AD;
- Seniority: candidates must have at least one year seniority with their employer, that means having worked for an eligible employer as described in Art. 1 of the SNE decision on a permanent or contract basis for at least one year before the secondment;
- Linguistic skills: thorough knowledge of one of the EU languages and a satisfactory knowledge of another EU language to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties. SNE from a third country must produce evidence of a thorough knowledge of one EU language necessary for the performance of his duties.

b) Selection criteria

Diploma

- university degree or
- professional training or professional experience of an equivalent level in the field(s): law or economics or transport policy.

Professional experience

Experience or qualification in passenger rights; knowledge of or interest in passenger rights for sea and inland waterways as well as the social dimension of transport policies are also an asset.

Language(s) necessary for the performance of duties

English, French an asset.

3. Submission of applications and selection procedure

Candidates should send their application according to the Europass CV format (<http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/en/documents/curriculum-vitae>) in English, French or German only to the Permanent Representation / Diplomatic Mission to the EU of their country, which will forward it to the competent services of the Commission within the deadline fixed by the latter. The CV must mention the date of birth and the nationality of the candidate. Not respecting this procedure or deadlines will automatically invalidate the application.

Candidates are asked not to add any other documents (such as copy of passport, copy of degrees or certificate of professional experience, etc.). If necessary, these will be requested at a later stage. Candidates will be informed of the follow-up of their application by the unit concerned.

4. Conditions of the secondment

The secondment will be governed by the Commission Decision C(2008)6866 of 12/11/2008 laying down rules on the secondment to the Commission of national experts and national experts in professional training (SNE Decision).

The SNE will remain employed and remunerated by his/her employer during the secondment. He/she will equally remain covered by the national social security system.

Unless for cost-free SNE, allowances may be granted by the Commission to SNE fulfilling the conditions provided for in Art. 17 of the SNE decision.

During the secondment, SNE are subject to confidentiality, loyalty and absence of conflict of interest obligations, as provided for in Art. 6 and 7 of the SNE Decision.

If any document is inexact, incomplete or missing, the application may be cancelled.

Staff posted in a European Union Delegation are required to have a security clearance (up to SECRET UE/EU SECRET level according to Commission Decision (EU, Euratom) 2015/444 of 13 March 2015, OJ L 72, 17.03.2015, p. 53).

The selected candidate has the obligation to launch the vetting procedure before getting the secondment confirmation.

5. Processing of personal data

The selection, secondment and termination of the secondment of a national expert requires the Commission (the competent services of DG HR, DG BUDG, PMO and the DG concerned) to process personal data concerning the person to be seconded, under the responsibility of the Head of Unit of DG HR.DDG.B4. The data processing is subject to the SNE Decision as well as the Regulation (EU) 2018/1725.

Data is kept by the competent services for 10 years after the secondment (2 years for not selected or not seconded experts).

You have specific rights as a 'data subject' under Chapter III (Articles 14-25) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, in particular the right to access, rectify or erase your personal data and the right to restrict the processing of your personal data. Where applicable, you also have the right to object to the processing or the right to data portability.

You can exercise your rights by contacting the Data Controller, or in case of conflict the Data Protection Officer. If necessary, you can also address the European Data Protection Supervisor. Their contact information is given below.

Contact information

- The Data Controller

If you would like to exercise your rights under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, or if you have comments, questions or concerns, or if you would like to submit a complaint regarding the collection and use of your personal data, please feel free to contact the Data Controller, HR.DDG.B.4, HR-MAIL-B4@ec.europa.eu.

- The Data Protection Officer (DPO) of the Commission

You may contact the Data Protection Officer (DATA-PROTECTION-OFFICER@ec.europa.eu) with regard to issues related to the processing of your personal data under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725.

- The European Data Protection Supervisor (EDPS)

You have the right to have recourse (i.e. you can lodge a complaint) to the European Data Protection Supervisor (edps@edps.europa.eu) if you consider that your rights under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 have been infringed as a result of the processing of your personal data by the Data Controller.

To the attention of candidates from third countries: your personal data can be used for necessary checks.
